BILLYE BRIM MINISTRIES POST

SPRING 2020 EDITION

Dear Partners and Friends,

What a time of empowering we are living in! In September and October 2019, we had Branden and Destanie minister in six meetings in Moose Jaw, Edmonton, and Kelowna. Then in November, Shelli and Kylie preached in ten meetings in Calgary, Kelowna, Moose Jaw, Toronto, and Simcoe. Lives were touched and changed forever!

We are excited to share an excerpt from the powerful message Branden shared in Kelowna.

Our highest calling is loving Jesus and spending time with Him.

The number one thing in your life is intimacy with Jesus. For me, He is my everything. I don't want anything to get in the way. I don't want the old Branden to get in the way. In order to spend time with Him, you have to carve out that time. Your flesh will say, "Oh you've had a busy day", but no, carve out that time. Even when you're at work, you can spend time with Jesus all day. You can commune with the Holy Spirit and say, "Thank you Lord, for helping me with this job. I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." At home, having that quiet time with Him is so vital. Recently, I have converted my bedroom closet into a prayer closet. I go in there to pray, because I want fresh oil from heaven.

When pressure comes against me, I put on worship music, pray in tongues and read the word.

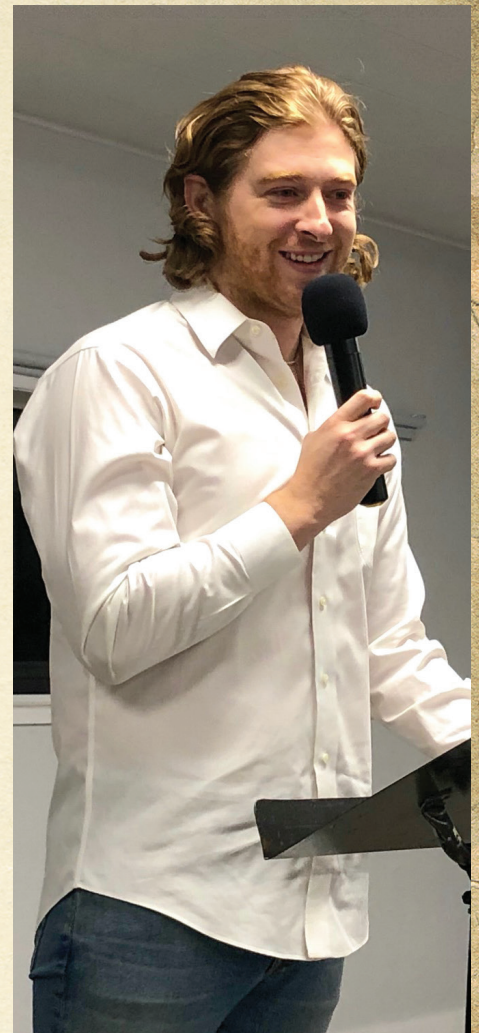

I say, "Flesh, you listen to me." All of a sudden, I get up on the inside like a roaring lion. I start confessing the Word over me; "God is for me, who can be against me. I am seated at the right hand of the Father with Jesus in the heavenly places." It will turn into an absolute addiction.

Matthew 22:37-39

Jesus replied: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind." This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: "Love your neighbour as yourself."

Jesus said the greatest commandment is to love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.

To love your neighbour as yourself, you need to love God with all your heart, all your soul and all your mind first. I can't love Destanie the way I am called to love her if I don't love Him first. By loving Him, we will get to the place where we love ourselves. How can we love others if we don't love ourselves? Love yourself the way God loves you, daily. If you want to carry the glory and presence, you need to spend the time and receive the love of God.

Whatever you behold in your life, you will become.

What did Jesus value in His life on earth? He valued His time with His Father. He is our example. In Luke 6, we can see that after miraculously feeding 5000 people, Jesus went up into a mountain to spend time with the Father all night. It's because He valued spending time with the Father over anything else. He did not spend His time reacting to other people. He only responded to what the Father wanted Him to do. He is calling you now to love Him like never before.

Jeremiah 29:13 says you will find Him when you seek Him with all your heart. Your past should not be greater than your future. Your future is greater than your past! Loving Jesus and spending time with Him is the key to breakthroughs!
